Nando Parrado

"Crisis...? What Crisis...?"

A lesson of courage, determination, leadership and team work.

A lesson in skills of leadership and tactical planning, not only for the human survival... but for the survival of companies. It's saga of courage, team work, determination... experienced at a level that few will be able to credit....will touch your heart and leave you with an elevated perception of the value of human life. This is also, a great history of Loyalty, Friendship, Family, Faith and Perseverance.
